

The Amy Yee Tennis Center, Seattle Parks Department, Summit Seekers, Seattle School District, and the United States Tennis Association have formed a partnership generated to impact youth in the Seattle area by providing tennis-skill and social development.

It is the mission of this program to develop the character of young people through tennis emphasizing the ideals in the following ways:

- Reaching out to young people who would not otherwise have the opportunity to learn and play the game
- Instilling the values of humanitarianism, leadership and academic excellence
- Introducing the opportunity to develop their tennis skills for a lifetime of enjoyment

Students enjoy specialized instruction from skilled coaches

The entry-level camp will take place at the Amy Yee Tennis Center June 26 – 30, 2006, 1:00-5:00pm, and includes the following:

- 20 hours of skills training
- Fun lesson instruction
- Games-based drills
- Singles and Doubles play
- Serving
- Ground Strokes
- Daily speaker
- Snacks
- Prizes
- Awards Ceremony

Forty student-athletes representative from Seattle School District middle schools will be invited to attend the camp.

Seattle School District physical education teachers are invited to volunteer on-court, interacting with tennis teaching professionals, students and other teachers that can strengthen their individual tennis programs.
